Upon such removal, the Common Area upon and in which the partition was located shall become a Limited Common Element to be used only by the owner of said contiguous Units. In the event of a sale of any of said Units separately from the other(s), the Unit owner shall return said partition(s) into the original condition existing prior to removal. In the event that a partition does not exist as of the date of the recording of this Declaration, the Unit Owner shall nevertheless be responsible for the placing of a partition in the Common Area located between Units in the event of a sale as set forth above. Any expenses incurred by a Unit Owner in removing or replacing a partition located in a Common Area shall be borne solely by the Unit Owner removing or replacing it. Until such time as all Units in the Condominium are sold, the Developer shall have the right to sell two (2) or more contiguous Units, which Units shall be considered as a multi-unit space as specified above. No transfer of any Unit which shall have been a part of a multi-unit space shall become effective until the partition(s) located between said Unit and any other Unit contiguous to it not being transferred to the same grantee, have been replaced as hereinabove provided.

The Association reserves the right to require the removal of any such alterations and restoration of the Unit for use as a single unit. The cost of all such alterations and the removal thereof, if required by the Association, shall be borne solely by the affected Unit Owner. No sale of a Unit shall become effective until such time as the restoration requirements, if any, imposed by the Association have been completed.

10. PERCENTAGE OF OWNERSHIP OF COMMON ELEMENTS AND VOTING.

(a) Exclusive of Common Areas, the Condominium is hereby declared to contain and is divided into 59 Units. Each Unit, together with its undivided share of the Common Elements, constitutes a Condominium Parcel. The undivided share in the Common Elements appurtenant to each Unit and the percentage share of Common Expenses and Common Surplus attributable to each Unit is shown on Exhibit C hereto.

(b) Each Unit Owner shall be entitled to one vote as a member of the Association.

11. AMENDMENT OF DECLARATION.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Article, this Declaration may be amended upon the approval of Sixty-six and Two Thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the members of the Association, provided, however, that:

(i) No amendment shall change any Condominium Parcel nor a Unit Owner's proportionate share of the Common Expense or Common Surplus, nor the voting rights appurtenant to any Unit, unless the record owner or owners thereof and all mortgagees and others who have voluntarily placed liens thereon shall join in the execution of the amendment.

(ii) No amendment shall be passed which shall materially impair or prejudice the rights and priorities of mortgagees without the express written consent of such mortgagee.

(b) Invalidation of any part of this Declaration, or any provision contained in the Plat, or in a conveyance of a Unit in the Condominium by Judgment, Court Order, or law shall in no wise affect any of the other provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Declaration, the Developer expressly reserves the right to amend this Declaration as follows:

(i) as to matters not having an adverse material effect on the rights of the owners within the meaning of F.S. § 718.110(4), lienors or mortgagees, and such right shall exist until the later of (i) two years from the date of the recording of this Declaration in the Public Records of Orange County, Florida, or (ii) control of the Association shall be transferred by Developer in accordance with Article 24 of this Declaration.

(ii) to increase the number of Units, to change the interior design and arrangement, to provide additional or alternate means of ingress or egress, and to alter the boundaries between Units so long as Developer owns the Unit or Units so altered. No such unilateral change by Developer shall alter the boundaries of the Common Elements. If more than one such Unit is affected, the Developer shall apportion between the Units the shares in the Common Elements which are appurtenant to such Units.

The Developer may amend this Declaration as herein described by recording an amendment to the Declaration in the Public Records of Orange County, Florida. Such amendment need be executed and acknowledged only by the Developer and need not be approved by the Association, Unit Owners, lienors or mortgagees of Units of the Condominium whether or not elsewhere required for amendments.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no amendment shall be adopted which would affect or impair the validity or priority of any mortgage covering any Condominium Parcel.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no amendment to the Declaration may permit timeshare estates to be created in any Unit.

12. THE ASSOCIATION, ITS POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES.

(a) The authority and obligation to operate this Condominium shall be vested in the Association. Copies of the Articles and Bylaws of the Association are attached hereto as Exhibits D and E.

(b) No Unit Owner, except as an officer of the Association, shall have any authority to act for the Association.

(c) The powers and duties of the Association shall include those set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, but in addition thereto, the Association shall have all of the powers and duties set forth in the Condominium Act as well as all powers and duties granted to or imposed upon it by this Declaration, including:

(i) The irrevocable right to have access to each Unit from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for the maintenance, protection, repair, or replacement of any Common Elements therein, or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the Common Elements or to other Units.

(ii) The power to make and collect annual and special Assessments and to lease, maintain, protect, repair, and replace the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements.

(iii) The duty to maintain accounting records according to good accounting practices, which shall be open to inspection by Unit Owners at reasonable times, and the duty to render annually a written summary thereof.

(iv) The power to enter into contracts for the maintenance, management, and security of the Common Elements, including the normal maintenance and repair of the Common Elements, and for the collection of Assessments, and in connection therewith to delegate the powers and rights herein contained, including that of collecting Assessments, perfecting liens for non-payment, etc. Any such service and maintenance contracts referred to herein may delegate to the service company the duty and responsibility to maintain and preserve the landscaping, gardening, painting, repair, and replacement of the Common Elements, but shall not relieve the Unit Owner from personal responsibility to maintain and preserve the interior surface of the Condominium Parcels and to paint, clean, decorate, maintain, and repair the individual Unit.

(v) The power to adopt reasonable and uniform rules and regulations for the maintenance and conservation of the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements, and for the health, comfort, safety and welfare of Unit Owners, all of whom shall be subject to such rules and regulations. The Developer and thereafter the Association shall have the power to prescribe uniform signage requirements applicable to the Condominium Property. Any such rules and regulations may be amended from time to time as provided by the Bylaws of the Association.

(vi) The power to purchase Units in the Condominium and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, and convey the same.

(vii) The power and duty to enforce the provisions of this Declaration, the Rules and Regulations, the Articles of Incorporation, and the Bylaws.

(viii) The power to grant utility or other easements as may, at any time, be required for the benefit of the Condominium and Unit Owners.

(d) Unless all holders of first mortgages or liens on individual Units have given their prior written approval, the Association shall not be entitled to:

(i) Change the pro rata interest or obligations of any Unit for purposes of levying Assessments and charges.

(ii) Partition or subdivide any Unit or the Common Elements; or

(iii) By act or omission seek to abandon the condominium status of the Condominium except as provided by statute in case of substantial loss to the Units and Common Elements.

(e) The maintenance of the Common Elements shall be the sole responsibility of the Association.

13. CERTAIN USE RESTRICTIONS

No nuisance will be allowed on the Condominium Property, nor any use or practice that interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the Condominium Property by Unit Owners. No immoral, improper, offensive, or unlawful use may be made of the Condominium Property. The Association shall have the authority, by rule or regulation, to adopt additional restrictions on the type or types of business that may be operated on the Condominium Property.

14 COMMON EXPENSES AND COMMON SURPLUS

(a) Common Expenses shall include expenses of the operation, maintenance, repair or replacement of the Common Elements, costs of carrying out the powers and duties of the Association, and any other expenses designated as Common Expenses by this Declaration or the Bylaws.

(b) Funds for the payment of Common Expenses shall be assessed against Unit Owners in the proportions or percentages provided in this Declaration; provided, however, where separate meters or charges exist or are made for a Unit, such items shall be paid by the Unit Owner as charged or metered.

(c) The Common Surplus shall be owned by Unit Owners in the shares provided by this Declaration.

15. ASSESSMENTS, LIABILITY, LIEN AND PRIORITY, INTEREST, COLLECTIONS.

(a) The Association shall approve annual budgets for this Condominium in advance for each fiscal year, which budget shall project anticipated income and estimated expenses in appropriate detail, and shall show separate estimates for taxes, if any, and insurance for the Common Elements. Each Unit shall be responsible for the annual Assessment chargeable for each fiscal year, based upon the comparative square footage of the Units. Each owner of a Unit shall own an undivided share in the Common Elements in the same respective percentage amounts. Owners shall own any Common Surplus in the same proportion as their percentage ownership interest in the Common Elements. The annual Assessment shall be broken into at least four (4) equal, quarterly installments; each installment being payable in advance, but the Association has the power to establish more frequent collection procedures. In addition, the Association has the power to levy special Assessments against each Unit in their respective shares if a deficit should develop or threaten to develop in the treasury for the payment of the expenses of the Association, or if needed for capital improvement.

(b) The Association shall have the power to fix and determine from time to time the sums necessary to provide for the Common Expenses of this Condominium, including the expenses allocable to services being rendered by a management company with which the Association may contract. Unless specifically waived by the Association, the Assessments shall include property and liability insurance premiums. A Unit Owner, regardless of how title is acquired, shall be liable for all Assessments coming due during the period of ownership. In a voluntary conveyance, the grantee shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid Assessments against the latter up to the time of such voluntary conveyance.

(c) The liability for Assessments may not be avoided by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any Common Elements or services, or by abandonment of the Unit for which the Assessment is made.

(d) Assessments and installments thereon, not paid when due, shall bear interest from the date when due until paid at the rate of eighteen (18%) per cent per annum or at the highest rate allowed by law if less than eighteen percent. Assessments and installments not paid when due shall likewise be subject to a late fee in the amount of 5 percent or $25, whichever is greater. In the event the Unit Owner shall be more than thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of any Assessment, or installment thereof, the Association, at its discretion, may, upon five (5) days written notice, declare due and payable all Assessments applicable to such Unit for the year in which the delinquency occurs.

(e) The Association shall have a lien on each Condominium Parcel for any unpaid Assessments, late fees, and interest thereon until paid. Such lien shall also include reasonable attorney fees incurred by the Association incident to the collection of such Assessment or enforcement of such lien, whether or not any civil action is commenced. Such liens shall be executed and recorded in the Public Records of Orange County, Florida in the manner provided by law, but shall enjoy such priority over existing liens as is provided by F.S. § 718.116 or otherwise by law. The Association may take such action as it deems necessary to collect Assessments by personal action or by enforcing and foreclosing said lien, and may settle and compromise same if in the best interests of the Association. Said lien shall be effective as and in the manner provided by the Condominium Act and shall have the priorities established by said Act.

(f) Liens for Assessments may be foreclosed by suit brought in the name of the Association in like manner as a foreclosure of a mortgage on all property, as more fully set forth in the Condominium Act. The Association may, at any sale, bid in it and apply as a cash credit against its bid all sums due the Association covered by the lien being enforced.

(g) No person who acquires an interest in a Unit, except a first mortgagee through foreclosure (or by deed in lieu thereof), including without limitation persons acquiring title by operation of law, including purchasers at judicial sales, shall be entitled to occupancy of the Unit or enjoyment of the Common Elements until such time as all unpaid Assessments due and owing by the former owner have been paid.

(h) The Association shall have the right to assign its claim for unpaid Assessments and lien rights therefor to the Developer or to any Unit Owner or group of Unit Owners or to any third party.

(i) The liability of a first mortgagee or its successor or assignees who acquire title to a unit by foreclosure or by deed in lieu thereof for unpaid Assessments that became due prior to the mortgagee's acquisition of title shall be as prescribed by F.S. § 718.116(1)(b), as from time to time amended.

(j) There shall be an initial operating assessment imposed as to each Unit in the amount of $ 1,000.00, payable on the transfer of each such Unit by the Developer to a purchaser.

(k) In accordance with F.S. § 718.116(9)(a)(1), the Developer, in its sole and exclusive discretion, may be excused from the payment of Assessments for the share of Common Expenses attributable to any Unit owned by the Developer and offered for sale during the period subsequent to the recordation of this Declaration and ending not later than the first day of the fourth calendar month following the month in which the closing of the purchase and sale of the first Unit occurs. Notwithstanding the Developer's election of such exemption, and except as otherwise provided by statute, the Developer shall nonetheless be obligated to pay such Common Expenses as may be incurred during the period of exemption in excess of Assessments against other Unit Owners.

16. TERMINATION OF CONDOMINIUM.

If all Unit Owners and the holders of all liens and mortgages affecting any of the Condominium Parcels execute and duly record an instrument terminating the Condominium Property or if "major" damage occurs as defined by Article 31 of the Declaration, said property shall be deemed to be subject to termination and thereafter owned in common by the Unit Owners. The undivided interest in the Common Elements previously secured by each Unit Owner shall then become the undivided interest owned by such owner in the property owned, as tenants in common.

17. EQUITABLE RELIEF.

In the event of substantial damage to or destruction of all or a substantial part of the Condominium Property, and in the event the property is not repaired, reconstructed, or rebuilt within a reasonable period of time, any Unit Owner shall have the right to petition a court of equity, having jurisdiction in and for Orange County, Florida, for equitable relief which may, but need not necessarily, include a termination of the Condominium and a partition.

18. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY.

(a) The liability of the owner of a Unit for Common Expenses shall be limited to the amounts for which the Unit is from time to time assessed.

(b) The owner of a Unit shall have no personal liability for any damages caused by the Association on or in connection with the use of the Common Elements. A Unit Owner shall be liable for injuries or damages resulting from an accident in his own Unit to the same extent and degree that the owner of a business would be liable for an accident occurring within such edifice that was not subject to any condominium regime.

(c) Notwithstanding the duty of the Association to maintain and repair portions of the Condominium Property, the Association shall have no liability to Unit Owners, their guests, invitees, or lessees, for injury or damage, other than for the cost of maintenance and repair, caused by any patent or latent condition of the portion of the Condominium Property for which the Association has maintenance responsibility, or caused by the elements or by other Unit Owners. Neither shall the Association have any liability for any injury or damage caused by defects in the design, workmanship, or any other reason connected with any alterations or improvements or other activities undertaken by or on behalf of Unit Owners.

19. LIENS.

(a) With the exception of liens which may result from the initial construction of this Condominium, no liens of any nature may be created subsequent to the recordation of this Declaration against the Condominium Property as a whole (as distinguished from individual Units) except with the unanimous consent of the Unit Owners.

(b) Unless a Unit Owner has expressly requested or consented to work being performed or materials being furnished to his Unit, such labor or materials shall not be the basis for the filing of a claim of lien against same. No labor performed or materials furnished to the Common Elements shall be the basis for a lien thereon unless such labor performed or materials furnished was authorized by the Association.

(c) In the event a lien against two or more Condominium Parcels becomes effective, each owner thereof may relieve his Condominium Parcel of the lien by paying the proportionate amount attributable to his Condominium Parcel. Upon such payment, it shall be the duty of the lienor to release the lien of record for such Condominium Parcel.

20. REMEDIES FOR VIOLATION, LEVY OF FINE AGAINST UNIT OWNER.

(a) Each Unit owner shall be governed by the requirements of this Declaration, the Bylaws, and such Rules and Regulations as may from time to time be promulgated by the Association. Failure to do so shall entitle the Association or any Unit Owner to recover damages or obtain injunctive relief or both, but such relief shall not be exclusive of other remedies provided by law.

(b) The Association may levy reasonable fines pursuant to F.S. § 718.303(3) against a Unit for the failure of the Unit owner, occupant, licensee, or invitee, to comply with any provision of this Declaration, the bylaws of the Association, or the Rules and Regulations of the Association. No such fine shall exceed $100 per violation, provided, however, that a fine may be levied on the basis of each day of a continuing violation up to an aggregate amount of $1,000, with a single notice and opportunity for hearing. No such fine may be levied except after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the Unit owner, and, if applicable, its licensee or invitee. Hearings shall be conducted before a committee of at least three other Unit owners appointed by the Association for that purpose. No such fine shall be levied except upon the majority vote of such committee. No such fine shall be levied with respect to an unoccupied Unit. In the event of litigation involving the collection of such fines, the prevailing party therein shall be entitled to recover the costs of such proceeding, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

21. EASEMENTS.

(a) Unit Owners shall have as an appurtenance thereto a perpetual, nonexclusive easement for lawful vehicular and pedestrian ingress and egress to and from their Units over stairs, streets, walks and other Common Elements, for the benefit of Unit Owners, their social guests, lessees, licensees, and invitees.

(b) All Condominium Property shall be subject to perpetual easements for encroachments presently existing or which may hereafter be caused by settlement or movement of the building or minor inaccuracies in construction, which easements shall continue until such encroachment no longer exists. If the Condominium Property is destroyed and then rebuilt, encroachments due to construction shall be permitted and a valid easement for said encroachments and the maintenance thereof shall exist.

(c) Easements are reserved through the Condominium Property as may be required for utility service in order to serve the Condominium adequately.

(d) All Condominium Property is subject to any right of way agreements and easements of record and such other utility easements as may be approved by the Developer and to any future easements that may be approved by the Association as necessary or appropriate for the use and benefit of the operation of the Condominium.

(e) Nonexclusive easements are reserved for the benefit of each Unit Owner and the Association over, across, and under the Condominium Property as may be required or allowed for maintenance, replacement or reconstruction as may be required or elected to be performed by a Unit Owner or the Association under this Declaration; provided, however, that repair, replacement, maintenance, and reconstruction shall be undertaken upon reasonable notice to the Unit Owner whose Unit is affected, or to the Association as to work affecting the Common Elements, and shall be performed in a manner as to minimize to the extent reasonably possible, any interruption or interference to such other Unit Owners in the normal operation of their Units. After completion of such work, the Unit or Common Area on, over, under or through which such work was performed, shall be left in a clean and good condition, with all debris removed, and returned to its original condition or then approved condition.

(f) Developer reserves for itself and its agents exclusive easement rights over and across the Common Elements, as long as Developer owns any Unit, for the purpose of marketing, sales, resales, and rental of Units. Such rights may include, without limitation, the right to establish models, conduct property tours, and sales presentations, and to erect, post, maintain and relocate signs, notices, advertisements, and other promotional information on the Condominium Property.

22. MEMBERSHIP IN ASSOCIATION, VOTING RIGHTS.

(a) The Association was chartered to perform the acts and duties desirable in connection with the management of the Units and Common Elements defined and described by this Declaration, and to levy and enforce collection of Assessments necessary to perform said acts and duties.

(b) All Unit Owners shall automatically be members of the Association, and said membership shall terminate when they no longer own such Unit(s).

(c) The owner of each Unit shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each such Unit in accordance with voting privileges set forth in the Bylaws, provided, however, that there shall be no more than one vote per Unit regardless of ownership.

23. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES.

A Unit Owner, the Association or Developer (until transfer of control occurs pursuant to Section 24), shall within ten days of receipt of written request from a Unit Owner, the Association or Developer, execute and deliver to the requesting party, or to such third party purchaser or mortgagee as the requesting party may designate, a certificate ("Estoppel Certificate"), stating to the extent applicable: (a) That the terms of this Declaration are unmodified and in full force and effect, or if modified, identifying any such changes; (b) Whether there is any existing default hereunder (or grounds therefor after requisite notice) by the requesting party, and if so specifying the nature and extent thereof; (c) Whether there are any sums that are owed by the requesting party, and if there is any such sum, the nature and amount thereof; (d) The nature and extent of any set-offs, claims, counterclaims, and defenses then being asserted or capable of being asserted against the requesting party; (e) The total amount of all sums owed by reason of assessment or other provision of this Declaration by the requesting party, together with a description of the applicable provision of this Declaration under which the claim is made, and the details of such claim; (f) The current address to which notices are to be given to the party executing the Estoppel Certificate, and (g) Such additional facts or conclusions as may reasonably be requested.

24. TRANSFER OF CONTROL OF ASSOCIATION

(a) The initial Board of Directors of the Association (or their replacements nominated by Developer) will remain in office, and the Developer will control the Association until the earliest of the following events: (a) three years after sales by the Developer have been closed on 50% of the Units; (b) three months after sales have been closed by the Developer on 90% of such Units; (c) some of the Units having been conveyed to purchasers, the date on which no Units continue to be offered for sale by Developer; (d) seven years after recordation of this Declaration; or (e) the election by Developer to turn over control. Upon sale and closing of at least 15% of the Condominium Units, Unit Owners other than the Developer shall be entitled to elect one-third (1/3) of the directors of the Association. An employee of a corporate owner, including Developer, shall be eligible to serve as a Director of the Association.

(b) Within seventy-five (75) days of the date on which Unit Owners other than Developer are entitled to elect one or more directors, the Association shall call, with not less than sixty (60) days notice to members, for such election. Immediately following such election, the Developer shall forward the name and mailing address of such new director to the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation in accordance with F.S. § 718.301(2).

(c) Within ninety (90) days of the date on which Unit Owners other than Developer accept control of the Association, Developer shall, at its own expense, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Association all of the property and records specified by F.S. § 718.301(4).

25. OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS.

In addition to other obligations and duties heretofore set out in this Declaration, every Unit Owner shall:

(a) Pay the Assessments levied by the Association when due.

(b) Maintain the Unit in good condition and repair, including all interior surfaces within or surrounding the Unit (such as the surfaces of the walls, ceilings, floors) whether or not a part of the Unit or Common Elements, and maintain and repair the fixtures therein and pay for any utilities which are separately metered to such Unit.

(c) Not permit or suffer anything to be done or kept in the Unit which will increase the insurance rates on the Unit or the Common Elements or which will obstruct or interfere with the rights of other Unit Owners or annoy them by unreasonable noises or otherwise; nor shall a Unit Owner permit any nuisance, immoral, or illegal act in his Unit or on the Common Elements.

(d) Conform to and abide by the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the Association in regard to the use of the Unit and Common Elements, and to see that all persons using a Unit through or under an owner do likewise.

(e) Make no alteration, decoration, repair, replacement, or change of the Common Elements or to any outside or exterior portion of the building of the Condominium.

(f) Allow the agents and employees of the Association to enter any Unit for the purpose of maintenance, inspection, repair or replacement of the improvements within Units or the Common Elements, or in case of emergency threatening Units or the Common Elements, or to determine compliance with this Declaration or the Rules and Regulations of the Association.

(g) Show no sign, advertisement or notice of any type on the Common Elements or a Unit, and erect no exterior antennas and aerials except as provided in Rules and Regulations of the Association.

(h) Make no repairs to any plumbing or electrical wiring within a Unit except by plumbers or electricians authorized to do such work by the Association. Plumbing and electrical repairs within a Unit shall be paid for, and be the financial obligation of the Unit owner. The Association shall pay for and be responsible for plumbing repairs and electrical wiring serving the Common Elements or providing service to more than one Unit.

26. ENFORCEMENT OF OWNER MAINTENANCE RESPONSIBILITIES.

In the event the owner of a Unit fails to maintain it as required above, or otherwise violates the provisions of this Declaration or of any Rule or Regulation of the Association, the Association or any other Unit Owner shall have the right to proceed in a Court of equity to seek compliance with such provisions; or the Association shall have the right specially to assess the Unit Owner and the Unit for the necessary sums to put the improvement within the Unit in good condition, and to collect such Assessment and have a lien for same as is otherwise provided herein. In the event of such Assessment, the Association shall have the right, for its employees or agents, to enter the Unit and do the necessary work to enforce compliance with the above provisions.

27. PARKING.

The Developer, for such time as it determines in its sole discretion, and thereafter the Association, shall have the right to assign and to change the assignment of such parking spaces from time to time as to the Unit owners, their lessees, and invitees, or may at its discretion take no action with respect to such assignments. A portion of the parking spaces may be for the use of guests and invitees as determined by and pursuant to the Rules and Regulations adopted by the Association. However, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m. and on weekends and public holidays, use of parking spaces by Unit owners, their lessees and invitees shall be unrestricted. The right to the use of a designated parking space, if such designation is made by the Association, shall be a use right only, exclusive to the person to whom such space is assigned subject, however, to the provisions of this Article.

28. IMPROVEMENTS AND ALTERATIONS.

There shall be no material alteration or substantial additions to the Common Elements or to the real property subject to this Declaration except as provided by this Article. Unit Owners, other than Developer as to Units owned by Developer, may undertake alterations and improvements within their Units only with the advance written approval of the Association and in accordance with such reasonable rules and regulations as the Association may, from time to time, promulgate. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Declaration, Developer may, without prior approval of the Association or Unit Owners, make such unilateral alterations to Units then owned by Developer as may be necessary or appropriate in Developer's sole discretion for purposes of preparing such Unit or Units for use by purchasers, such alterations to include, without limitation, additional openings through floors, walls, ceilings and roofing otherwise defined as part of the Common Elements under this Declaration, and the installation of grease traps and connections thereto thereafter to be designated by Developer as Limited Common Elements.

29. SALE, LEASE, AND OTHER TRANSFERS.

(a) Prior to the sale, rental, lease, sublease, or other transfer of any Unit or any interest therein, the Unit Owner shall notify the Association in writing of the name and address of the person to whom the proposed transfer is to be made and the terms and conditions thereof, and provide such additional information as may reasonably be required by the Association. Failure to do so shall be deemed a breach hereof, and any transfer or lease in contravention of this Article shall be null and void and confer no right, title or interest to the intended purchaser, lessee, or transferee. Within ten (10) days of receipt of said notice and such supplemental information as it reasonably requires, the Association shall either approve or disapprove of the proposed sale or transfer, in writing, and shall notify the owner of its decision. No such approval shall be given or deemed to have been given if at the time approval is sought the Unit Owner is delinquent in payment of Assessments. Failure by the Association to act within said ten (10) days shall be tantamount to its consent and deemed a waiver of all objection by the Association. Approval of the Association shall be stated in a certificate executed on behalf of the Association upon receipt by the Association of such approval fee as may from time to time be established by resolution of the Board. In no event shall such approval fee exceed the amount established by F.S. § 718.112(2)(i) as such provision may from time to time be amended. The Association may further require, as a condition of its approval of a prospective lessee of a unit, that the said lessee pay over to the Association a security deposit equal to one month's rent, which such deposit shall be held in escrow by the Association and shall protect against damage to the Common Elements or Association property.

(b) The Association shall have the right to require that a substantially uniform form of lease be used by Unit Owners. No Unit Owner shall be relieved of responsibility for compliance with the provisions of this Declaration, or the Rules and Regulations of the Association, by reason of the lease of any Unit. Any and all Rental Agreements shall contain a provision stating the tenant agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions of the Condominium Documents. In the event of any violation of the Condominium Documents by a tenant, the Association shall have the right to fine and the right to evict the tenant and to pursue such additional rights and remedies as it may have under the Condominium Documents directly against the tenant. The Unit Owner shall be jointly and severally liable with the tenant to the Association for any costs incurred by the Association to repair any damage to the Common Elements resulting from acts or omissions of tenants, and a special charge may be levied by the Association against the Unit and Unit Owner for such injury or damage. All Rental Agreements shall be subordinate to any lien filed by the Association, whether prior to or after execution of such agreement. All Rental Agreements shall be deemed to incorporate the covenants and restrictions of this Declaration, as from time to time amended, which such covenants and restrictions shall constitute a material part of such Rental Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, should any Unit at any time become subject to an institutional first mortgage, the holder thereof, upon becoming the owner of such Unit through foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, shall have the unqualified right to sell, lease, or otherwise transfer said Unit, including the fee ownership thereof, without prior approval by the Association.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, this Article shall not be applicable to the Developer, who is hereby irrevocably empowered to sell, lease, or rent Units to any lessees or purchasers without consent of the Association. Developer shall have the right to transact any business necessary to consummate sale or leases of Units, including, but not limited to, the right to maintain model Units, have signs, employees in the offices, use the Common Elements and show Units. Sales office signs and all items pertaining to sales and leases shall not be considered Common Elements and shall remain the property of the Developer.

30. INSURANCE.

(a) In accordance with F.S. § 718.111(11), except as provided by paragraph (c) of this Article, the Association shall use its best efforts to obtain and maintain public liability insurance for itself and members, fire and extended coverage insurance, including vandalism and malicious mischief coverage, insuring all of the Condominium Property and the property of the Association, together with such other insurance as the Association deems necessary in and for the interest of the Association, its members, and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear, in a company licensed to do business in the State of Florida, in an amount equal to maximum insurable replacement value as determined annually. The premiums for such coverage and other expenses in connection therewith shall be assessed against the Unit Owners as part of the Common Expenses. The named insured shall be the Association, individually and as agent for Unit Owners and their mortgagees, who shall be considered additional insureds.

(b) Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed agent for each Unit Owner and for each owner of a mortgage or other lien upon a Unit, and for each owner of any other interest in the Condominium Property to adjust all claims arising under insurance policies purchased by the Association and to execute and deliver releases upon the payment of claims.

(c) Unit Owner's Obligation. Each Unit owner shall purchase public liability insurance to protect himself against claims due to accidents within his Unit, shall purchase casualty insurance on the contents within the Unit, and shall furnish evidence thereof to the Association at least annually.

(d) In any legal action in which the Association may be exposed to liability in excess of insurance coverage protecting it and the Unit Owners, the Association shall give notice of the exposure within a reasonable time to all Unit Owners who may be exposed to the liability and they shall have the right to intervene and defend.

(e) A copy of each insurance policy obtained by the Association shall be made available for inspection by Unit Owners at reasonable times.

31. RECONSTRUCTION OR REPAIR AFTER CASUALTY.

(a) Determination to Reconstruct or Repair. If any part of the Condominium Property shall be damaged by casualty, whether or not it shall be reconstructed or repaired shall be determined in the following manner:

(i) Common Elements. If the damaged improvement is a Common Element, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, unless it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the Condominium shall be terminated.

(ii) Office Space. If the Association determines that casualty damage has rendered portions of a structure uninhabitable to which no more than 50 percent of the Common Elements are appurtenant, then the damaged improvements shall be reconstructed or repaired. If the Association determines that casualty damage has rendered portions of a structure uninhabitable to which more than 50 percent of the Common Elements are appurtenant, then the damaged improvements will not be reconstructed or repaired and the Condominium shall terminate unless within 60 days after the casualty, the owners of Units as to which at least 75 percent of the Common Elements are appurtenant agree in writing to such reconstruction or repair.

(b) Plans and Specifications. Any reconstruction or repair must be substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for the original building; or if not, then according to plans and specifications approved by the Association.

(c) Responsibility. If the damage is only to those parts of a Unit for which the responsibility of maintenance and repair is that of the Unit Owner, then the Unit Owner shall be solely responsible for reconstruction and repair after casualty. In all other instances the responsibility of reconstruction and repair after casualty shall be that of the Association.

(d) Estimates of Costs. Immediately after a determination is made to rebuild or repair damage to property for which the Association has the responsibility of reconstruction and repair, the Association shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost to rebuild or repair.

(e) Special Assessments. The amount by which insurance proceeds is reduced on account of a deductible clause in an insurance policy shall be assessed against all Unit Owners in proportion to their shares in the Common Elements. If the proceeds of such Assessments and of the insurance are not sufficient to defray the estimated costs of the reconstruction and repair by the Association, or if at any time during reconstruction and repair, or upon completion of reconstruction and repair, the funds for the payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair are insufficient, Assessments shall be made against the Unit Owners in sufficient amounts to provide funds for the payment of such costs.

32. TAX ASSESSMENT

For the purpose of ad-valorem taxation, the interest of the owner of a Condominium Parcel in his Condominium Unit and in the Common Elements shall be considered as a single Unit. The value of said Unit shall be equal to the percentage of the assessed value of the entire Condominium, including land and improvements, as has been assigned to said Unit in this Declaration. The total of all of said percentages shall equal 100% of the assessed value of all of the land and improvements thereon.

33. ENCROACHMENTS.

In the event any portion of any Unit encroaches upon the Common Elements as a result of the construction, reconstruction, repair, shifting, settlement or moving of any portion of the condominium property, a valid easement for the encroachment, and for the maintenance of the same, shall exist so long as the encroachment exists.

34. REGULATED SUBSTANCES.

(a) Hazardous Materials

(i) As used in this Declaration, "Regulated Substance" shall mean: any substance or material defined or designated as hazardous or toxic waste, hazardous or toxic material, a hazardous toxic or radioactive substance, or other similar term, by any federal, state, or local environmental statute, regulation or ordinance presently in effect or

(ii) Condominium Property:

35. WOODLAND LAKES MASTER COVENANTS & RESTRICTIONS, MEMBERSHIP.

The Condominium Property is subject to matters described by the Declaration of Master Covenants and Restrictions for Woodland Lakes, recorded among the Public Records of Orange County, Florida on September 8, 2000, at OR 6083, PG 3443, as from time to time amended, and provides for certain assessments against the Condominium Property, levied by the Woodland Lakes Property Owners' Association, Inc. ("Woodland Lakes") The Association shall be the sole representative of Unit Owners with respect to Woodland Lakes and shall exercise all of the rights of members of Woodland Lakes on behalf of Unit Owners. The Association shall also administer the collection from Unit Owners of any assessments levied against the Condominium Property by Woodland Lakes and shall have the same authority enforcement authority with respect to the covenants and restrictions contained in the Woodland Lakes declaration as is provided herein for matters contained in this Declaration.

36. MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) If any provision of this Declaration, of the Bylaws of the Association, or of the Condominium Act, or any section, sentence, clause, phrase or word, or the application thereof in any circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this Declaration and Bylaws and the application of any such provision, section, sentence, clause, phrase or word in any other circumstance shall not be affected thereby.

(b) Nothing in this Declaration shall be construed as limiting the power and remedies of the Association as set forth by the Condominium Act. Should the Association at any time find it necessary to bring Court action to bring about compliance with this Declaration, the Bylaws, or Rules and Regulations of the Association, upon a finding by the Court that the violation, or the continuation thereof, was willful and deliberate, the noncomplying Unit Owner shall reimburse the Association for the costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by it in bringing such compliance action.

(c) Captions in this Declaration are for ease of reference and do not constitute a part of this Declaration.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Declaration, Developer is irrevocably empowered to sell, lease, or rent Condominium Units on any terms to any purchasers or lessees for as long as it owns any Unit of the Condominium.

(e) All notices to the Association required or desired hereunder or under the Bylaws or Rules or Regulations of the Association shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Association in care of its office at the Condominium, or at such other address as the Association may hereafter designate from time to time by notice in writing to all Unit Owners. Except as provided specifically in the Act, all notices to any Unit Owner shall be sent by first class mail to the Condominium address of such Unit Owner, or such address as may have been designated by the Unit Owner from time to time in writing to the Association. All notices to mortgagees of Units shall be sent by first class mail to their respective addresses or such other addresses as may be designated by them from time to time in writing to the Association. All notices shall be deemed to have been given when mailed in the properly addressed, postage paid, sealed wrapper, except notices of changes of address which shall be deemed to have been given when received or five days after mailing, whichever shall first occur.

(f) The Board of Directors of the Association shall be responsible for interpreting the provisions hereof and of any of the Exhibits attached hereto. Such interpretation shall be binding upon all parties unless wholly unreasonable. An opinion of counsel that any interpretation adopted by the Association is not unreasonable shall conclusively establish the validity of such interpretation.

(g) The Association shall not be responsible to any mortgagee or lienor of any Unit hereunder, and may assume the Unit is free of any such mortgages or liens unless written notice of the existence of such mortgage or lien is received by the Association.

(h) Each Unit Owner, by reason of acquiring ownership (whether by purchase, gift, operation of law or otherwise) and each mortgagee and occupant of a Unit shall be deemed to have acknowledged and agreed that all of the provisions of this Declaration and of the Articles and Bylaws of the Association, and applicable Rules and Regulation are fair and reasonable in all material aspects.

A copy of a proposed annual budget, prepared in accordance with the requirements of F.S. § 718.112(2)(f), shall be mailed to Unit Owners not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting of the Board of Directors at which the proposed budget will be considered, together with a notice of that meeting. An affidavit of compliance with such notice requirement shall be filed with the records of the Association. Such meeting shall be open to Unit Owners.

Section 4. Official Records.

(a) The following records shall be maintained by the Association from its inception and shall constitute the official records of the Association.

(i) Copies of the plans and specifications used in the construction of the Condominium with accompanying certificate specified by F.S. § 718.301(4)(f), together with a list of all contractors, subcontractors and suppliers known to have furnished labor or materials for the construction of the Condominium.

(ii) Copies of certificates of occupancy and other permits applicable to the Condominium Property issued within one year of the date Unit Owners other than Developer take control of the Association.

(iii) All written warranties in effect on the date of the transfer of control by Developer to Unit Owners.

(iv) Copies of the recorded Declaration, articles of incorporation of the Association, the Association bylaws, the Association's Rules and Regulations, and each amendment thereto.

(vi) The current roster of Unit Owners, Unit identifications, mailing addresses, voting certifications, and, if known, telephone numbers.

(vii) All current insurance policies.

(viii) Current copies of all management agreements, leases, and other contracts to which the Association is a party or which otherwise obligates the Association or Unit Owners.

(x) Ballots, sign-in sheets, voting proxies, and all other papers relating to voting by Unit Owners (to be maintained for at least one (1) year after the date of the election to which they pertain)

(xi) All other records of the Association relating to its operations.

Section 5. Access to Official Records. The official records of the Association shall be available to members and their authorized agents for inspection at all reasonable times on the Condominium Property. The Association may adopt reasonable rules and regulations regarding the frequency, time, location, notice, and manner of record inspections and copying, and may charge its actual costs for the preparation and furnishing of such documents to those requesting same. Copies of such documents shall be furnished to those entitled to inspection within five (5) days of receipt by the Association of written request therefor.

ARTICLE IX CORPORATE SEAL

The seal of the corporation shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation, the year and state of its organization, and the words "Non-Profit ". Said seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed, affixed, reproduced or otherwise.

ARTICLE X DEFAULT

Section 1. Enforcement of Lien for Assessments. In the event a unit owner does not pay any sums, charges or assessments required to be paid to the corporation within thirty (30) days from the due date, the corporation, acting on its own behalf or through its Board of Directors, may enforce its lien for assessments to which it is entitled, in accordance with the Declaration and the statutes made and provided therefor.

Section 2. Sale After Foreclosure. If the corporation becomes the owner of a unit by reason of foreclosure, it shall offer said unit for public or private sale and at such time as a sale is consummated, it shall deduct from the proceeds of said sale all sums of money due it for assessments and charges, all costs incurred in the bringing of the foreclosure suit, including reasonable attorneys' fees, and any and all expenses incurred in the resale of the unit, which shall include but not be limited to advertising expenses, real estate brokerage fees, and expenses necessary for the repair and refurbishing of the unit in question. All monies remaining after deducting the foregoing items of expenses shall be returned to the former owner of subject unit.

Section 3. Other Enforcement Action. In the event of a violation, other than nonpayment of assessments, of the provisions of the Declaration, corporate Articles, Bylaws, or Rules and Regulations, as the same are or may hereafter be constituted, which continues for thirty (30) days after notice from the Association to the unit owner(s) to correct said breach or violation, the Association may bring appropriate action to enjoin such violation or may enforce the provisions of said documents, or may sue for damages, or take such other courses of action, or other legal remedy as it may deem appropriate. A mortgagee (as such term is defined in the Declaration) of a unit shall be entitled to written notice from the Association of any default by the mortgagor of such unit under the condominium documents which is not cured within thirty (30) days. In the event such legal action is brought against a unit owner and results in a judgment for the plaintiffs, the defendant shall pay the plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs. Each unit owner, for himself, his heirs, successors and assigns, agrees to the foregoing provisions relating to default and abatement of nuisance, regardless of the harshness of the remedy available to the corporation and regardless the availability of the other equally adequate legal procedures. It is the intent of all owners of the commercial units to give to the corporation a method and procedure which will enable it at all times to operate on a business-like basis, to collect those monies due and owing it from the owners of units, and to preserve each unit owner's right to enjoy his unit, free from unreasonable restraint and nuisance.

ARTICLE XI JOINT OWNERSHIP

Membership may be held in the name of more than one owner. In the event ownership is in more than one person, all of the joint owners shall be entitled collectively to only one vote or ballot in the management of the affairs of the corporation.

ARTICLE XII AMENDMENT TO BYLAWS

These Bylaws may be altered, amended or added to at any duly called meeting of directors, provided (1) that the notice of the meeting shall contain a full statement of the proposed amendment; and (2) that the quorum requirement for such purposes shall be a majority of all the directors, in person or by proxy. Any such alteration, amendment or addition may also be approved by a majority of directors acting without a meeting in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws.

ARTICLE XIII CONSTRUCTION

Section 1. Masculine/Feminine. Wherever the masculine singular form or pronoun is used in these Bylaws it shall be construed to mean the masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, wherever the context so admits or requires.

Section 2. Severability. Should any of the covenants herein imposed be void or be or become unenforceable at law or in equity, the remaining provisions of this instrument shall nevertheless be and remain in full force and effect.
